

The Ten Commandments of Choir Tour

1. Thou shall observe all rules established by the chaperones.
2. Thou shall treat all people encountered on this trip with respect. Thou shall not use profane or abusive language. Thou shall behave as a positive representative of Christ United Methodist Church and as an instrument of Christ's love.
3. Thou shall not use any alcoholic beverages, tobacco products, or illegal drugs of any kind.
4. Thou shall not bring any kind of weapon, fire starting implement, or other prohibited items.
5. Thou shall refrain from any inappropriate public displays of affection.
6. Thou shall be accompanied by at least two chaperones during free day excursions and during meal stops while travelling.
7. Thou shall follow all rules established by host families. Thou shall not wander away from host family homes during your overnight stay.
8. Thou shall cheerfully help load and unload the vans before doing anything else once we reach a destination.
9. Thou shall perform Faithseekers! to the best of your ability for each performance.
10. Thou shall have fun!!!